GLOBALVOX

BUZZ

April 2025

Director’s Message

I wanted to take a moment to share some exciting updates and reflect on the positive momentum we’re building together with April Newsletter.

First off, a big shoutout to GlobalVox team involved in our participation at the Alliance Conference by HEUG. We wrapped up on a high note—with meaningful conversations, fresh connections, and a clear sense that GlobalVox is on the radar of key players in the higher education space. These events are more than just booths and brochures—they’re about building trust and showing what we stand for. And you all helped do just that.

Director’s Message

Now for something equally exciting—AuctionX is entering its next big phase. We’ve started building the community around the platform, and very soon, the public will begin engaging with it directly. We’re taking a network marketing approach to get the word out and encourage participation. It’s new territory, and honestly, a bit bold—but we believe that’s where next growth will happen. If we do this right, AuctionX can be something really special.

These moments—whether it’s gaining recognition at a global conference or launching something new—remind me why we do what we do. It’s about creating impact, building things we’re proud of, and doing it together.

Thank you for your passion, your ideas, and the energy you bring every day. Let’s keep building, keep believing, and make April another great chapter in our story.

Leo’s Roar

by Leo

Hola! That’s Spanish for hello. Dean here. I’m writing this while I’m in Metepec, Mexico (45 kms from Mexico City) for my grandson’s wedding. Leo and Leia are in Florida with Shreya and Leon is in Ahmedabad with Pratik and Hiren.

Family

I decided to focus on family this month. In the press of things, we sometimes overlook the people closest to us: our family . I know I have. I’ve missed too many birthdays, anniversaries, and even the birth of my daughter. I was in South Vietnam during the Second Indo-China war when my daughter Kim was born. It’s Kim’s oldest son, Diego, who is getting married tomorrow. Diego and his fiancé Kaitlynn chose Metepec as the venue for their wedding because Diego was born and raised here, before moving to Arkansas where he met Kaitlynn. My daughter and her husband lived here for 30 years serving the church as missionaries. Unfortunately, Kim’s husband Raul died here last May from pancreatic cancer. Such is life … not always generous or fair. It just is. And it’s a reminder that we should treasure every day we have together.

Leo’s Roar

by Leo

The Big Day

Tomorrow, 5 April, is the big day for Diego and Kaitlynn. Family members and friends have traveled from all over the United States and Mexico to attend. It’s a time to celebrate their marriage and to renew relationships with extended family and friends. Some I haven’t seen in almost 50 years. And some I’m meeting for the very first time.

Leo, Leo, and Leia

Leo and Leia have been talking about returning to Gujarat sometime this Spring or Summer. They’re eager to see Leon … and the three lion cubs want to see their family and friends in the Gir National Forest, too. Being apart is often necessary, but it doesn’t alter our need to be with family. Family time is renewing, revitalizing. So don’t put it off.

GlobalVox

So … my challenge to all of you is to be proactive. Reach out to your family. Plan a family reunion. Visit with your family during the next holiday season or festival. Share the moment with those people who mean the most to you: your family.

That’s all for now, See you next month. In the meantime, remember Kunalsinh’s guidance, “Be Safe, Work Hard, Eat Well, Sleep Tight.” I will!

Bye for now … Dean

GV Team Welcomes
New Joinees

GLOBALVOX

Sahil Anand
Software Engineer

Pradeep Patidar
Software Engineer

Birthday Wishes

Nandini Parekh

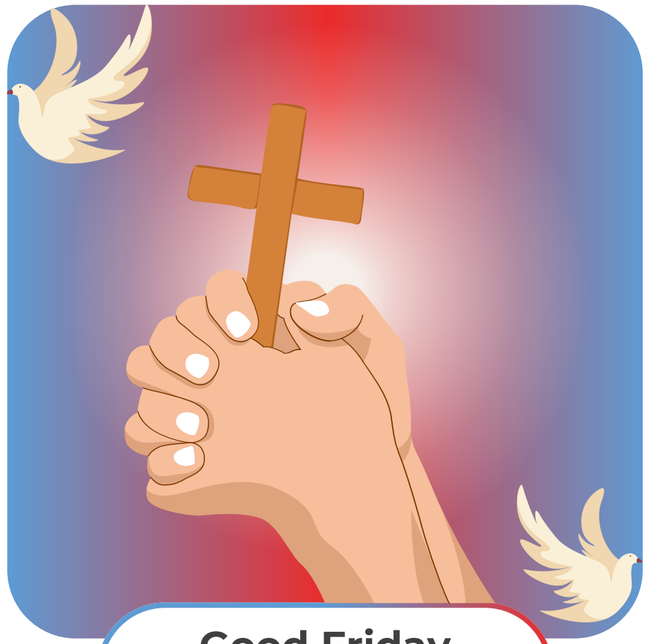

30th April

Holidays in April

Ram Navmi

6 Apr 2025 Sunday

Good Friday

18 Apr 2025 Friday

Easter

20 Apr 2025 Sunday

GLOBALVOX

Ram Navami

A Festival of Righteousness

Ram Navami is a sacred Hindu festival celebrating the birth of Lord Ram, the seventh incarnation of Lord Vishnu. Observed on the ninth day of the Chaitra month, it honors the virtues of truth, duty, and righteousness that Lord Ram embodied.

Devotees mark the occasion with prayers, fasting, and recitations of the Ramayana, reflecting on the timeless values he represents. Ram Navami serves as a reminder of the triumph of good over evil and the importance of living a life rooted in integrity and devotion.

Good Friday: A Day of Reflection and Reverence

Good Friday is a solemn Christian observance commemorating the crucifixion of Jesus Christ and his sacrifice for humanity's salvation. Observed during Holy Week on the Friday preceding Easter Sunday, it is a day marked by prayer, fasting, and reflection on the profound significance of Christ's suffering and death.

Church services held on Good Friday often include scripture readings, hymns, and meditations on the Passion of Christ. It is a time for believers to honor the values of love, compassion, and forgiveness that lie at the heart of Christ’s teachings.

Good Friday serves as a poignant reminder of the enduring power of faith, the depth of divine grace, and the hope of redemption through sacrifice.

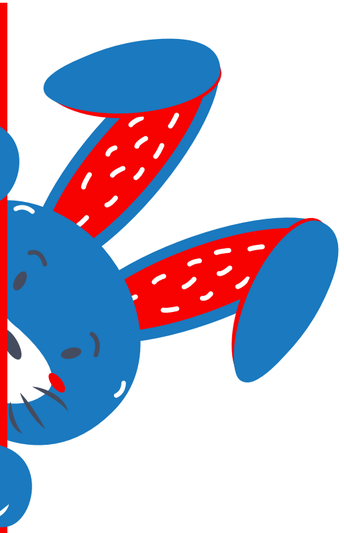

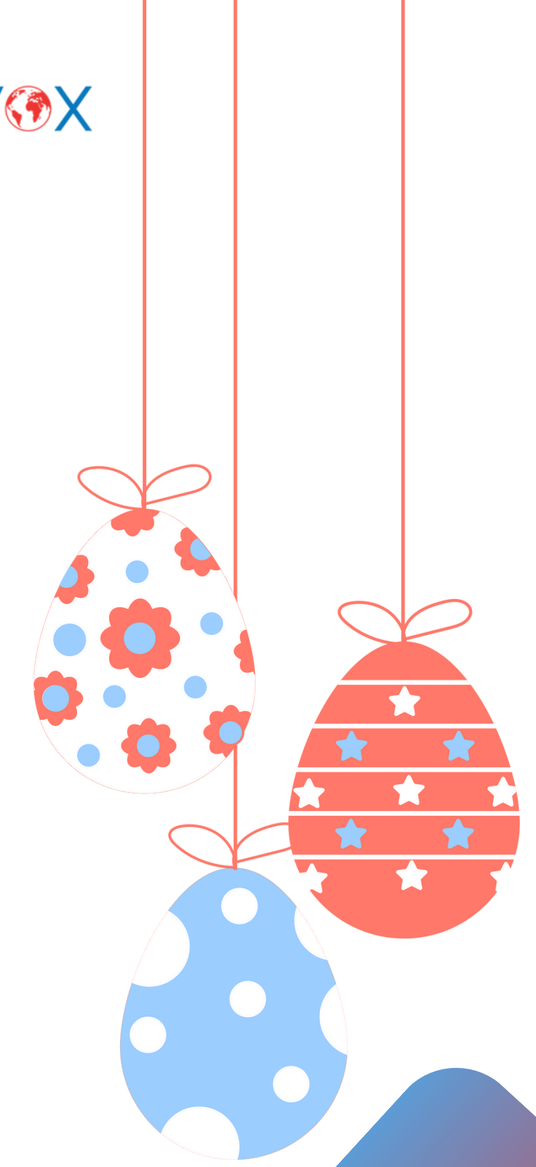

GLOBALVOX

Easter: A Celebration of Renewal and Hope

Easter is a deeply significant Christian festival commemorating the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Observed on the first Sunday after the spring equinox full moon, it symbolizes the victory of life over death and the promise of eternal hope.

Marked by church services, reflection and community gatherings, Easter invites believers to embrace the values of faith, love, and renewal. It stands as a powerful reminder of resilience, sacrifice, and the light that follows even the darkest of times.

Certifications - Vanshita Dubey

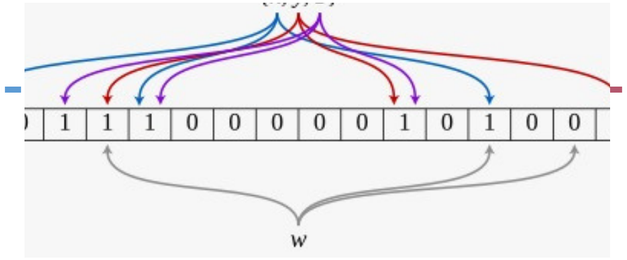

Blogs by Team

Bloom Filters: A Space-Efficient Data Structure for High-Performance Systems Read More.....

POSTED BY
Vinita Kumawat

Elevate effectiveness and output by implementing Generative AI and AI Agents in Oracle Cloud Applications Read More....

POSTED BY
Vanshita Dubey

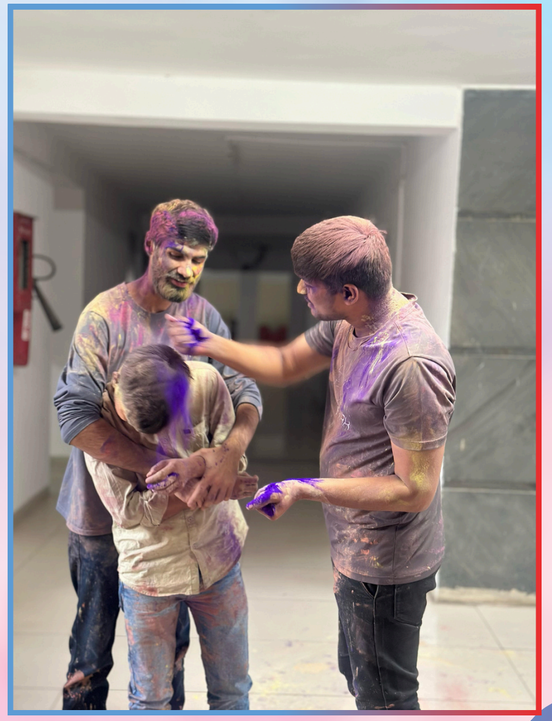

GLOBALVOX

Holi Celebration

Women's Day Celebration

GLOBALVOX

THANK YOU

Special Thanks :

Dean Kershaw